L. J. C. BULL

L. J. C. Bull holds a unique place in the regard of Onthariocans who know him, as an "optimist" farmer. He believes in the land, that farmers have a golden opportunity at their doors today, that if they will put their spare cash into land and dairy cattle instead of into wildcat schemes proposed to them by so-called ~~po~~ promoters, they would be well away on the road to happiness and independence, to say nothing of riches. Unique~~in~~ in his views, Mr. Bull is also unique in that he carries them into execution, at every opportunity. He looks like an optimist, talks like one, and best of all, acts like one.

~~Loyi~~

Louis John Carpenter Bull is the second son of the late Bartley H. Bull, and Sarah Duncan, was born on what later became the Sheriff Mowatt Estate in York township, where his parents were born before him. When but a few months old, he came with his parents to the first line east, Chinguacousy, very close to Brampton, and has lived in that locality for the greater part of his life.

He received hid early education at Broddytown public sc and later attended Brampton High School.

Marrying Miss Jessie Baskerville 28 years ago, he purchase 70 acres of land belonging to the old Baskerville estate at the nort end of Brampton, this land being part of the original U. E. L. grant to Mrs. Bull's grandmother, Mrs. Johnston.

Farming this land for 4 years, Mr. and Mrs. Bull disposed of it to the Dale Estate, and went to Arcola, Saskatchewan, where they spent a year, going from Arcola to Yorkton. There Mr.

Bull assumed the position of manager of the Vermillion, Assiniboine and Saskatchewan Land Company, which he held for 3 years. This was in the days of the big land book in the West, and Mr. Bull's experiences of that growing period in the life of the Canadian West are very valuable ones.

Returning to Brampton, he purchased the Hanson Garbutt farm at the extreme south of the town, this property being disposed of in 1913 to a Toronto Company, who but for the war would have put through a big development scheme in the South end of Brampton.

Having purchased the Morphy estate, also in the south of Brampton, prior to disposing of the farm, Mr. Bull farmed in a small scale on its seven acres, while recuperating from a serious illness.

Recently, with his faith in the coming development of the west side of Peel as a market garden area and fruit district, he bought 300 acres of land, Lots 6,7,and 8, on the townline, south of Norval, and has already disposed of 60 acres of this land. He believes that Norval is the coming garden for the great city of Toronto. The land is superior to that in the south of Peel, there is easy access to the district by radial or by truck on the Provincial Highway, and with the area already opened near Huttonville stretching westward, Mr. Bull sees the area which he purchased stretching east to meet it.

Mr. Bull has the same interest in the Jersey cow that his brothers possess. In the days when his father, Bartley H. Bull, was experimenting with the dominutive cream producer, he was in on the experimental stage, and at present has a herd of 20 Jerseys all pure bred, and fully accredited. His son, Donald, is following in the family footsteps, and this summer went to the Jersey Islands to see Canada's famous cow in her native habitat.

Brought up in the Jersey cattle business, where a critical judgment was required, Mr. Bull's capabilities were recognized to such an extent that he was selected to give demonstrations in judging dairy cattle for the judges at the short courses held at Guelph and at Ottawa. In addition to this service to the agricultural public he has been appointed a departmental judge on dairy cattle at Kingston, Renfrew, Ridgetown, Amherstburg, Fort William and various Northern Ontario fall faris.

In 1918, he was president of the Ontario Fairs and Exhibition Association, is past president of the County of Peel Agricultural Society, and is at present, vice-president of the County of Peel Agricultural Society, also president of the Ontario Seed Growers' Association, and their representative on the Royal Winter Fair Board.

Like so many other men, the busier they are, the more time they have to spare for their fellows. Mr. Bull demonstrated this capacity for work in sitting in the town council for three years, in the Reev's chair for 2 years, was Deputy-reeve one year, and Mayor 2 years. Since finishing his career in the local council, he has been a member of the Water Commission, having returned to that body each year by acclamation.

Mr. Bull's experience as Mayor of Brampton was gained during the strenuous years of the war, and he was in consequence, an active worker in the Red Cross and Patriotic Committees. And it was during that same service that he had to bear the loss of his gallant brother, Major Jeffrey Bull.

Many of Brampton's present good roads were built during the seven years in which Mr. Bull was acting as municipal representative, and he looks back with pleasure to service freely given in the town's behalf.

A lifelong member of Grace United church, he is a trustee and a member of the board of Stewards. With experience gained in the old Sunday schools of Broddytown and Salem, he was able to give two years to teaching the adult Bible class of that church, with acceptance to its members.

As a member of L.O. L. No 5, Mr. Bull recalls with deep pleasure the fact that he took the various steps in the lodge side by side with Senator Blain, for whom he has a deep affection and unqualified respect. He is also a member of Ionic Lodge A.F. and A.M.

Although much too busy a man for active participation in sports, he is keenly interested in the various activities of Brampton's organizations, particularly in lacrosse clubs. This is easily understood by the fact that Harper Bull, his second son, has risen through the ranks of the various Excelsior organizations, and was when he left Brampton, a member of the prize-winning Junior Champions.

His oldest son, Dr. Frank Bull, is at present an interne in the Western Hospital, Toronto, having just completed his course in medicine, Harper is in London, Donald is in England, in connection with a cattle-buying expedition to the Jersey Islands, George and Lily, the two youngest, are still at school, having both passed the Entrance Examination this summer.

To Mr. and Mrs. Bull, third generation of worthy Canadians, instilling into the fourth generation those principles that have made Canada what it is to-day, the Conservator wishes long life, much happiness of the kind that lasts, and the realization of their fondest hopes for their children.

Louis John Carpenter Bull, U.E., b. Balquehollie, Downsview, York Co., 14 Dec. 1873, 3rd son of Bartholomew Hill Bull, U.E., Brampton Councillor 1812-1819. Reeve 1916-17; Mayor, 1918-1919. Vice President County Alfalfa Club, Ontario Association of Fairs and Exhibitions, County Agricultural Society. Provincial Magistrate, 1930, ~~1938~~. WORK RECOGNIZED

Former Magistrate of Brampton, and for half a century active in agricultural affairs in the County of Peel, was honored on Saturday when he was presented with a Provincial Government Diploma of Merit in recognition of his long service to Agriculture. The presentation was made at the annual meeting of the Peel County Agricultural Society.

Meritorious Service Marked By Presentation Of Diploma

Long and meritorious service both to agriculture in Peel county and to the County Agricultural Society was recognized on Saturday, when L. J. C. Bull, former police magistrate and one of Peel County's most industrious farmers, was presented with a diploma of merit.

These diplomas are issued by the Provincial Department of Agriculture and are awarded only to men who have given outstanding service.

The presentation was made at the annual meeting of the Peel County Agricultural Society in the Court House on Saturday. W. A. Wilson, district director for fall fairs and Reeve of Esquesing township made the presentation and paid a well deserved tribute to Mr. Bull.

Mr. Bull in a brief reply thanked all who were concerned in this recognition. Peel County has done some important things for agriculture Mr. Bull said, and he was proud to have had a share in that work. He recalled that the county had produced breeders of many outstanding herds of cattle, and that these herds had contributed to fine herds throughout Canada and the United States.

In a reminiscent mood Mr. Bull recalled that he first exhibited at the age of 10 years. He had shown a calf which his father had purchased very cheaply because it had been gored and it had walked away with the major prize at the fair. Since that time he had been a regular exhibitor and an interested member of the society.

Not only has Mr. Bull been active in agricultural affairs, but he has also served with distinction in other fields of endeavour. For about ten years he graced the magisterial bench in Brampton. He served as a member of the town council, as deputy-reeve, as reeve, and as Mayor of Brampton for two years. He was for years considered one of outstanding dairy cattle judges in Canada.

Mr. Bull is a notable breeder of Jersey cattle and is a former president of the Fairs' Association of Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Bull have five children, Dr. Frank Bull, of Gardiner, Maine; Harper, a member of Brampton's town council; Donald, farming in Peel; George, at home, and Miss Lillian, dietician at the Toronto Hospital for Consumptives at Weston.

BRAMPTON---UPPER CANADA COLLEGE.

The very latest interesting development in connection with the expansion of Brampton is the securing of an option on the farm of Mr. L. J. C. Bull, by the Board of Governors of Upper Canada College. It was announced some time ago that this well known educational institution would be necessitated to leave its present building in the near future. Naturally suitable locations have been sought and their respective merits considered. It is said that those in charge have had their eye on Brampton and also on a property near Meadowvale for some time. That they may decide on Brampton is thought to be quite probable. The distance from Toronto is an advantage rather than an obstacle. The surroundings in Brampton are extremely favorable for an institution of this kind. The transportation service is excellent, electric light and power are already here, for natural beauty the site spoken of cannot be surpassed, and the establishment of the college here would add greatly to the town's advantages, and would mean much to the institution as well. The farm is particularly well adapted for the athletic grounds required and residences that would naturally be a part of the institution. The site is not only just without the town limits but on the best road in the county and we are not surprised that those looking for a site should fancy the ideal location had been selected should the deal go through.

Stephen Giles, who accompanied Mr. L. J. C. The part of the structure in which the heating plant was installed is completely demolished, three men being killed outright and a number injured. Mr. Giles was sleeping in a horse pen right over the boiler house and was hurled with a pile of steel and timbers into the basement. He was rescued by the fireman half an hour later and was absolutely unhurt. Mr. Bull's horses escaped injury although other exhibitors were heavy losers.

The nineteenth annual convention of the Ontario Association of Fairs and Exhibitions was held at Toronto on Thursday and Friday last, with a good attendance of delegates from the 12 districts of the province. President Wm. S. Scarf of Durham, in his opening address, made special remark on the large number present in consideration of the fact that reduced rates for the season had not been granted by the railroads and he expressed the hope that when normal conditions prevail the reduced rates would be restored. He referred to a plan suggested at last year's meeting for the holding of school fairs conjointly with the regular fall fairs, pointing out that there would be a great economy of both time and money by adopting such a syste m.

Dr. G. C. Creelman, Commissioner of Agriculture for the province, and onee superintendent of fairs and exhibitions in Ontario, said that he was delighted to know that the association was never stronger than it is today. Dark days for the Fall Fairs had passed with the pa ssing of low prices for farm products, and the old social feeling was being revived at these gatherings, which are the demonstration part of the farmers' business.

Youth loves satire, and expresses itself freely, often making what in the years to come proves to be a bull's eye of prophecy. The opening speech of the Lord Mayor, Mr. Frank Bull, contained two references that will show the trend of modern life. THE TOWN'S HOMELESS NO LONGER DESPONDENT

For several weeks p st, the Conservator has had its attention called to the "homeless" condition of many of the citizens of Brampton.

This week a man who would have been a great acquisition to the community, had to seek a home in another town because there was not a house to be found after a disheartening and fruitless search in every corner of the town.

Last week the mother of a returned man, who had been anxious to settle in the town with his people, reported that he had been forced to seek a home in a distant part of Ontario, because there he could find what he sought, the work he could do, and the home in which he could shelter himself.

But to-day word has been received, and The Conservator has been asked to announce officially that the Brampton Housing Commission is at work. This Commission, consisting of Judge Justin, Mayor Bull and Mr. G. W. McFarland, have had an important meeting, and are now ready to receive applications from those who wish to avail themselves of the Government Housing Scheme.

TOWN ATHLETIC CLUB ENDORSED.

Tuesday night's meeting in the Town Hall brought out a good crowd with representatives of the various branches of sport on hand and members of the Town Council and C.P.A.S Board.

The meeting was in full accord with the proposition that the town should have an athletic club with grounds where all sport could have free play. As representatives of the County of Peel Agricultural Society Messrs Hewson and McCulloch spoke on the proposition of coming into an agreement with the C.P.A.S. Board to use the Fair Grounds for athletics, the idea being to lease the grounds for a term of years.

The C.P.A.S. would be willing to co-operate with the athletic club in the matter of buildings and fences to be built or removed. Mr. L. J. C. Bull suggested that the grounds be rented free on condition that they be kept in proper shape. Mr. Capps representing the Football Club, called attention to the fact that Brampton Football Club is in the T. & D. League and many good games can be promised the town.

BULL'S BANK BARN BURNED LAST NIGHT

Splendid New Building Completely Destroyed - Loss Very Heavy.

The fire alarm was rung last night about seven o'clock for one of the worst fires that have occurred for some time. The barn on the property of L. J. C. Bull was discovered to be on fire, and there was a rapid response to the call for help.

Mr. Bull had been working at the barn at six-thirty coming in for his supper. At seven, when the men went out into the yard, the barn was seen to be in a mass of flames.

New hay had been stored in the barn during the past week, and that is the only reason that can be given for the fire.

The barn, which was built over 20 years ago, cost $4000, and cannot be replaced under $10000. Besides the barn, fifteen pigs were burned, and five thorobred calves. A quantity of old hay as well as the new crop already in the varn, with a couple of waggons, and some grain, were also a complete loss.

The fact that there was no wind and that the sparks went straight up into the air prevented the fire from menacing the surrounding buildings.

The fireman brought down the truck, and by means of a steady stream of water on the building in which the implements are stored, kept the fire from breaking out there. The horse stables immediately adjoining were saved. Had the latter building caught, the extent of the fire would have been immeasureably worse.

Mr. Bull wishesto thank the firemen and others for their assistance during the fire.

WINNERS IN COMBINED FIELD CROP CONTEST

Results of Alfalfa Standing Crop and Threshed Grain Competion Held in Peel

L. J. C. BULL WINS FIRST

Peel leads again in having held the first competion in Alfalfa Standing Crop and Threshed Grain. It was the first of the kind in this province, possibly in the Dominion. It was organized through the efforts of the Peel Alfalfa Society, and boosted by the Peel Alfalfa Producers' Association. Twenty-five entrants with worthy fields and high class seed made a very keen competition. $275.00 was given in prizes. The judges have just announced the winners. Mr. L. J. C. Bull of Brampton wins first place, with a total score of 91.2 points, carrying off the $75.00 cash prize. Roy Pawley ranked as a close second, with 87 points, and all the other winners scored over 84 points.

The combined field crop competition is an outgrowth of judging in the fields, as 40 per cent. is allowed for the grain in the bin, or seed in the sack, and 60 per cent. for the field score. In other words, value is placed on the finished product ready for seeding, in addition to the field appearance of the crop.

L. J. C. BULL APPOINTED PEEL COUNTY MAGISTRATE.

Announcement has been made of the appointment of L. J. C. Bull as magistrate for the County of Peel to fill the position recently left vacant by the death of Robert Crawford.

Mr. Bull has been a resident of Peel and Brampton for over 55 years. Born in York County he came to the first line east, Chinguacousy, where his father began the present widely known Jersey business. He attended Broddytown public school, graduating from Brampton High School.

All his life Mr. Bull has been actively engaged in farming, first on Johnston estate, a seventy-acre crown land grant to the grandparents of his wife, formerly Miss Jessie Baskerville. He then farmed on the Garbutt estate, south of Brampton. Following the disposal of this property, Mr. Bull purchased and farmed the Morphy property until he removed to Norval district, where he now owns some 600 acres of valuable market garden land.

Like his brothers, D. O. and Bartley Bull, he has followed the Jersey business and has a fine herd of 20 pure-bred cows. He has given cattle judgment demonstrations at short courses at Ottawa and Guelph and has also been one of the judges appointed by the Department of Agriculture, Toronto, to act at fairs throughout the province.

L. J. C. BULL APPOINTED PEEL COUNTY MAGISTRATE,--2.

President of Ontario Fairs and Exhibitions in 1918, he is also past president of Peel County Agricultural Society, past vice-president of Peel Alfalfa Association, past president of the Ontario Seed Growers' Association, and was representative for that body on the Royal Winter Fair Board.

Mr. Bull has also found time to act as reeve of Brampton for two years, deputy reeve for one year and mayor during 1918 and 1919. During the strenuous war years he was connected with Red Cross and patriotic committees. He has a long record as an active member of the local water commission.

A life-long member of Grace United Church, a member of its board of stewards and a worker in the Sunday School, Mr. Bull also is actively connected with L. O. L. No. 5 and Ionic A. F. & A. M. DR. J. J. WILSON year as our best plowman. We have another one just as good, Mr. Hargreaves in West Oxford. He won second honours I believe at the Provincial Match. We did not send any more because we did not want to hog the whole thing. We in Oxford are entirely in sympathy, we appreciate the good work you have done.

ALEX. MCKAY, PEEL COUNTY: Our plowing matches date back to 1914 when the Provincial was held in Peel County. We have held one each fall, and in the fall of 1931 we had the largest match we have had. We have been able to finance our matches as we go along. Last year our prize list was $854 in trophies and cash, and better still we have a balance of about $300 in the bank.

The Plowing Match last year was unique in another way in that there was not a dollar of prize money offered, but what was claimed. In the third way, we start training the boys in Peel County young. In 1930 we had a boy of 12 years of age who stood second in the tractor class, to a man who stood second.

Our Match is centrally located in Brampton, and we have a prize list which we believe is as good as we can make it, and we only hope the Plowmen of Ontario will find it possible to visit our Match.

VICT. PORTEOUS, DERBY TOWNSHIP: A great philosopher tells us that the world is full of extremes. I think perhaps those extremes have been in evidence this afternoon. We have had the extreme from the far east and the extreme of the south-west. Now I am going to tell you about the extreme of the north part of Western Ontario, and that is North Gray. I am only an alternate delegate here and I just wish to give a verbal report. If I were to give you all the things that the Derby Association has done it would take in more manuscript than has been in evidence here.

We have been in operation for 11 years and we have had an ever-increasing number in our Match until this year. This year, on account of the Teeswater Match being held so close, we did not have as much competition, but had just as good plowing as ever. It resulted in that the prize money went more locally than other years. We sent last year three boys to the International Match, and we took second and third prize, so we did not do too badly. We are trying to push our boys' classes as much as possible.

Now the main object I had in coming here was to try to glean some information with regard to the International Plowing Match, and I am glad to have the information I have so far, and I hope to have the reports of those records which happened last year, and I hope to come next year to extend to the Ontario Plowmen's Association an invitation to come to North Gray for their International Match.

W. C. BRUBAKER, WATERLOO TOWNSHIP: We have been able to boast of our Match until this year when we come with rather humble spirit, 7 horse-drawn, 4 tractors. Financially we are better off than ever before. Not being successful was due to the fact that Brant and Puslinch held their Match on the same day. We have come here to see what can be done about having these dates fixed so that they will not overlap.

J. A. GREEN, KING AND VAUGHAN: I am sorry I cannot give you a detailed report as Mr. Legge is not here. In the second place, I am Green, and then being so young, I do not know just how long the King and Vaughan has been in existence. Nevertheless our Branch has always had a successful Match. Last year we had some 84 entries and we would have had more only Brampton had theirs on the same day. We give very valuable prizes. Our Association has been growing every year, financially we are in real good standing, and the prizes are second to none in any other Branches. If you come to King and Vaughan Plowing Match this year you will find that satisfactorily demonstrated and that we will give you real value for your money.

In connection with a report from our county, unfortunately, as we went in with Peterboro, we have no records. But I am very proud of our Inter-County team, 3 boys. Two of them belonged to my own school section. This year we are having our county match in what is considered the banner township of the Province of Ontario, the Township of Mariposa. It is our ambition to have at least 100 entries in our boys' plowing match. We had 20 under 18 and 13 under 16. This year up to this time we know that we have 40 who intend to compete in the Home Plowing Competition.

RALPH BAKER, N. YORK: This year we had a successful Match, the largest yet held. There were 67 entries and about $400 in prizes paid. We also send a boy from our Branch to the Provincial Match. We have other boys coming on for the next Provincial Match.

JAMES SMITH, HALDIMAND CO.: There is one thing we should have at our Plowing Matches, and that is, two judges. We had 47 entries last year and one man cannot score that many in the time alloted and give the best of satisfaction.

HARRY HARTRY, POWASSAN: We organized our Branch in September, last, and held our first Plowing Match at Powassan on Octo 21. R. M. Tipper, Agricultural Representative, took a very active pa in organizing our Association and also was present during the Match. different classes were well filled and competition was keen. N. G. M Leod, the judge sent out by the Department, was well pleased with the quality of the plowing in the different classes. We had a beautiful day and a very large crowd. Everybody enjoyed it, as I have mentioned before, and it was the first Plowing Match ever held in this District.

HOME PLOWING COMPETITIONS AND OTHER INTERESTS WHICH MIGHT BE FOSTERED BY THE O.P.A.

J. J. TIERNEY

At an executive meeting held in Mr. Wilson's office in November, I said a few words in defence of home plowing competitions, which has resulted in my being asked to deal a little more fully with the topic to-day.

You all know the history of this Association, its undertakings and achievements, and undertakings which in the final analysis show their worth in the making of a good agriculturalist.

> Men lack vision unless they see, that in the human plan
> Nothing is worth the making
> That does not make the man.

The Ontario Plowmen's Association is chiefly responsible for local or county organizations, and from my connection and experience with the Central Association, county organizations, and home-plowing competitions, I feel keenly disposed to offer words of encouragement that

Visitors Throng Lions Camp To Enjoy Opening Ceremony

Civic Greetings from Toronto Brought by Mayor W. J. Stewart—Magistrate L. J. C. Bull, Brampton; Magistrate Keith, York Township; Magistrate Webster, of Weston, and Judge Hopkins, of Toronto Juvenile Court, Were Among Notables Present.

The Lions' Club Boys' Camp on the Eighth line was very much alive last Wednesday evening, when the Lions held their formal opening of the camp for the season. Visitors from the surrounding district came in crowds to enjoy a pleasant evening in the camp. The day had been insufferably hot, and it was not without effort, after a strenuous day in the wheat field, that the farm folks turned out in such numbers to show their appreciation of the Lions' hospitality.

Perhaps it might have been better if the entertainment had been on standard time, as the farmer has to run his work by the sun, and it gets his affairs badly mixed when he has to figure out right and "wrong" time, and make things fit in. Many were much disappointed because they arrived too late to hear the speech of Mayor Stewart, of Toronto, not to mention other notables.

This year, the Lions have made great advancement in the building of a wonderful little hospital, a council ring, and an addition to the kitchen. The hospital is in charge of Dr. Day, a pleasant young gentleman, who is very proud to show his domain, and never seemed to be wearied answering the many question his visitors asked. This building has an airy ward containing three cots, the windows large and screened; one felt it would be a privilege to be a sick boy and lie in one of those neat cots in Dr. Day's care. The hospital will be a great asset, no doubt, where there are so many boys. Boys were always famed for eating things they shouldn't — from old Adam down through the ages.

The Council Ring presents rather a mysterious appearance; it is a large enclosed circle, with tiers of seats around the palisade capable of seating over 200 people. There is also a large platform; this ring is intended to be a gathering place for the boys to carry out their Indian pow-wows, boxing, etc. This building was presented to the Lions on Wednesday evening by Mr. Manchester, president of the Dickens Fellowship, Toronto, who said that his organization did other things besides study Dickens, the members tried to do some good in this world, and enjoyed giving the humble boy a break, following the example set forth by Dickens himself. Mr. Stanford, past president, also spoke. Mr. Alex Taylor, president of the Lions' Club, Toronto, was chairman and ably introduced the speakers.

Mayor Stewart, of Toronto, brought civic greetings, and gave excellent advice to the boys. Several magistrates also gave good advice, for they all know the temptations of this wicked world, and the weakness of the human being. Magistrate Keith, Magistrate Bull, of Brampton; Magistrate Webster, of Weston, were these notables.

Judge Hoskins, of the Juvenile Court, Toronto, gave a very interesting address, also full of good advice, for he also knew the faults and failings of humanity, but was quite sympathetic. He admitted his temerity in getting up to speak after so many good speakers, who all had gray hair—that is, those who had any hair to be gray. Judge Hoskins is only a young man. Quite a number of the members spoke—those who are immediately connected with the camp work—Mr. Geo. Huston, manager of the camp, Mr. Bearmont, "Chief," and others.

The boys presented the open-air pageant, "Little Orphan Annie," which was greatly enjoyed by the visitors. The Lions had received permission from the copyright owners, the "Chicago Tribune," Harold Gray, the cartoonist, and the Ovaltine Company, which uses Annie for advertising purposes, to present the pageant.

There were many fine singers in this group of boys and many budding comedians. Great credit is due to Mr. Beaumont and his assistants for the splendid training they must have given the boys. Each group is only in camp for ten days, so the camp must have worked hard to present a pageant like "Little Orphan Annie" in the manner they did with such a short preparation.

The Lions deserve great credit, and we wish them every success in all their enterprises.

TROUBLESOME LAD LIKELY TO BE WHIPPED BY FATHER

A neighbour of the lad claimed that he threw stones at the house, and created a disturbance, and refused to go away and behave himself when warned.

The Magistrate informed the lad that he did not like his attitude in Court, he did not believe his story, and if he didn't take care he would be in for a lot of trouble. He was given instructions to have $6.00 on hand in Port Credit on Thursday of this week, or else his father was to be present with him, and he, the father, would whip his boy. Lest there might be no strap on hand for the whipping the Magistrate said he would bring the big one down from Brampton.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL Roebuck has divided the province into magisterial districts and allotted the work to fifty officials. Accomplishing this purpose, all of the Justices of the Peace and nearly one hundred magistrates have been retired. One of those retained is the Police Magistrate of Brampton, Mr. L. J. C. Bull, while E. J. Pallett of Cooksville is dismissed. Mr. Bull's jurisdiction will be extended. He will perform the duties of the office in Halton as well as Peel. His salary in future will be $3,000 per annum, an increase of $500, to which must be added travelling expenses. These will necessarily amount to a considerable sum as, we are told, cases will be heard in the five or six towns and villages of Halton as well as in Brampton, Cooksville and Port Credit.

The Attorney-General expresses the belief that under the new method, justice will be more equitably administered and that considerable saving will be effected. There will be a general desire that his expectations in both regards will be realized. That will be demonstrated as the months go by.

Friends in Peel are offering congratulations to Mr. Bull and will have confidence that he will prove worthy of the substantial promotion he has received. Immediately after the formation of the Hepburn government the report was circulated that Mr. Bull would be one of the first to fall under the Hepburn axe, and that it was only a question of a short time until his successor would be named. Hon. Mr. Marshall has decided otherwise. The man most prominently mentioned for the position has waited long for some recognition from the party he has served so faithfully. He must still wait. When the announcement was made some very plain speaking was indulged in by men and women who have been waiting for Tory heads to fall. Their wrath, we learn, is somewhat appeased by the assurance that the present appointments are only temporary, and that Mr. Roebuck intends that all magistrates appointed in future shall be lawyers. But Mr. Marshall controls the patronage of the county and, experienced as he is in political matters, he will not lose any sleep over the noisy outbreaks of a few persons who always complain but never desert the party.

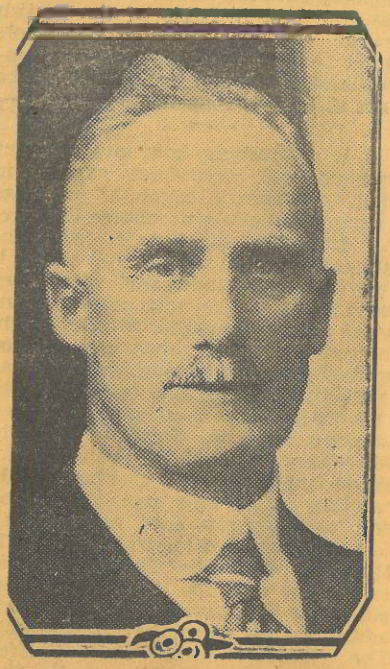
MAGISTRATE L. J. C. BULL, of Brampton, who to-day received notice of his dismissal as magistrate, a position he has filled since 1929, by Order-in-Council by the Provincial Government.

THE ORANGEVILLE BANNER

MARCH 3, 1938.

NO LONGER MAGISTRATE



As intimated in last week's Banner, Magistrate L. J. C. Bull, of Brampton, was last week removed from office by an Order-in-Council. Mr. Bull received notice by mail on Wednesday, February 23rd, from W. W. Denison, inspector of legal offices for Ontario, that his appointment as magistrate had been revoked by order-in-council on Monday, February 21st. Mr. Bull received his appointment as magistrate shortly after the death of Squire Crawford, of Brampton, in 1929. He had presided at courts in Brampton, Orangeville, Milton, Georgetown and Newmarket and was well liked on the Bench. Attorney-General Conant stated that he would not be replaced and that his retirement was a matter of "reorganization and economy."

Mr. Bull held his last Court in Orangeville on Friday afternoon. At its conclusion, Mr. N. N. Wardlaw, speaking for the Orangeville Bar, expressed his regret at his retirement. Speaking for the court officials, Crown Attorney R. David Evans also expressed keen regret and referred to the happy relations that had existed between the Magistrate, himself and the officers of the court. Mr. Bull, who was evidently much affected by these expressions of regard and regret, stated that he had always tried to be human in the discharge of his duties. He believed in warning and correction for first offenders rather than meting out the full penalty of the law. He had tried to be fair and impartial and had not been influenced more than need be by legal technicalities, preferring to be guided in his decisions by the broader rules of justice.

For the present at any rate Magistrate Woodliffe, of Weston, will take over the Orangeville police court, which will now be held on Tuesday instead of Friday afternoon.

IN THE court room and on the street, wide expressions of regret have been heard regarding Magistrate L. J. C. Bull's dismissal. In Orangeville last Friday the point was raised that Mr. Bull had an understanding of rural conditions and environment which was of inestimable value in the communities where he presided.

Elaborately decorated with 'mums and other seasonable flowers, the Inglewood United Church was the setting of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon last, when Miss Christine Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, of Inglewood, was united in marriage to Mr. John Donald Bull, son of Magistrate L. J. C. Bull and Mrs. Bull, of Norval. The officiating clergymen were Rev. J. A. H. Hodgson, pastor of the church; Rev. Mr. Powell, of St Barnabas Church, Toronto, and Mr. Wm. Precisely at the appointed hour, 4 o'clock, the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding music played by Miss Joyce Maxwell, organist of the church. The bride was escorted by her father, who later gave her in marriage. The bride looked radiant in a wedding gown of blue lace over taffeta, her hair being adorned with a halo of lace matching her dress. She also wore lace mittens. Her attendant, Miss Barbara Douglas, of Toronto, wore a becoming frock of lace over pink taffeta, her head ornament being a halo like that of the bride. Both bride and attendant carried old fashioned nosegays of roses and lily-of-the-valley. Mr. John Bull, of Brampton, filled the duties of best man, the ushers being Mr. Marshal Donaldson and Mr. Richard Casson, both of Toronto. During the service Mr. Bruce Donaldson, brother of the bride, rendered "Because" and "At Dawning". Immediately after the service a sumptuous wedding luncheon was enjoyed at the home of the bride, the waiters being boy friends of both bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Bull then left for a wedding trip to different southern points, the bride travelling in a rust wool suit with mink trimmings and matching accessories. On their return the happy couple will reside at "Wolfden Farm," Norval. The presents received by both bride and groom were useful and costly, several being received at different showers held in their honor from time to time.

"A china nest egg"

The gift of L. J. C. Bull, Magistrate, of lot ___ concession ___ Chinguacousy West.

Commonly used by farmers fifty years, more or less, ago, who might or might not have hen pens, and nests were made in odd places around the fence corners and weeds and grass, etc. in the summer and in the hay mows or straw mows and stacks, or in sheltered places in the winter.

Most hens then preferred to lay where others had laid or would lay, and would always lay in a nest already made, particularly if an egg was in it.

The china egg, also, would not freeze and could not be sucked or broken, and they were supposed to be an encouragement or incentive to the hens to lay - kind of the emulation idea.

This one used at the homestead by the magistrate when a boy.

INGLEWOOD

Elaborately decorated with 'mums and other seasonable flowers, the Inglewood United Church was the setting of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon last, when Miss Christine Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, of Inglewood, was united in marriage to Mr. John Donald Bull, son of Magistrate L. J. C. Bull and Mrs. Bull, of Norval. The officiating clergymen were Rev. J. A. H. Hodgson, pastor of the church; Rev. Mr. Powell, of St Barnabas Church, Toronto, and Mr. Wm. Perkins Bull, uncle of the groom, of Toronto. Precisely at the appointed hour, 4 o'clock, the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding music played by Miss Joyce Maxwell, organist of the church. The bride was escorted by her father, who later gave her in marriage. The bride looked radiant in a wedding gown of blue lace over taffeta, her hair being adorned with a halo of lace matching her dress. She also wore lace mittens. Her attendant, Miss Barbara Douglas, of Toronto, wore a becoming frock of lace over pink taffeta, her head ornament being a halo like that of the bride. Both bride and attendant carried old fashioned nosegays of roses and lily-of-the-valley. Mr. John Bull, of Brampton, filled the duties of best man, the ushers being Mr. Marshal Donaldson and Mr. Richard Casson, both of Toronto. During the service Mr. Bruce Donaldson, brother of the bride, rendered "Because" and "At Dawning". Immediately after the service a sumptuous wedding luncheon was enjoyed at the home of the bride, the waiters being boy friends of both bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Bull then left for a wedding trip to different southern points, the bride travelling in a rust wool suit with mink trimmings and matching accessories. On their return the happy couple will reside at "Wolfden Farm," Norval. The presents received by both bride and groom were useful and costly, several being received at different showers held in their honor from time to time.

The Conservator,

3rd March 1938.

IN THE court room and on the street, wide expressions of regret have been heard regarding Magistrate L. J. C. Bull's dismissal. In Orangeville last Friday the point was raised that Mr. Bull had an understanding of rural conditions and environment which was of inestimable value in the communities where he presided.
